INFO

handmade fused glass mosaic, decors, battens thanks to the hand crafting proces and the use of special artistic materials, we have obtained the effect of a non-repeating pattern, which makes each mosaic cube different and unique like a fingerprint fusing is a term used to describe glass that has been heat processes in a kiln at a range of high temperatures, allowing it to combine glass and decorative elements to create beautiful and three-dimensional samples we do decors, mosaics and battens in different shapes, congiguration and thickness, if Your project is different than presented, please contact us our company customise your project even from one mosaic plaster
